Angelo Gatto leaves Aenova Group

Starnberg, 12 May 2020. Angelo Gatto, Senior Vice President Global Sales & Marketing of the Aenova Group, is leaving the company at his own request.

Mr. Gatto started his CDMO career as Sales Director at Haupt Pharma in Latina. After the acquisition of Haupt Pharma by Aenova Group in 2014, Mr. Gatto focused on the development of the Animal Health business and he later headed as Vice President the two Italian production sites in Latina and Carugate. Since 2017 he has been Senior Vice President Sales & Marketing of the Group and a member of the Executive Leadership Team at Aenova.

"I would like to thank Mr. Gatto for his many years of trustful cooperation and valuable contributions to the Group. While leading our commercial team and efforts globally, he and his team have been able to acquire a large pipeline of new business and thus ensured strong growth for years to come. In addition, Angelo had the vision to create our CDMO Animal Health business, which is a meaningful contributor to the Group's growth today. I wish him every success," explains Jan Kengelbach, CEO at Aenova Group.

With around 4,300 employees and planned sales of € 730 million in 2020, the Aenova Group is one of the major players in the European and international pharmaceutical and healthcare market. The Group's service portfolio covers the entire value chain for the development and production of all major dosage forms and product groups in the field of pharmaceuticals and dietary supplements in Human and Animal Health.

Mr. Gatto is leaving the company at his own request. His position will be temporarily taken over Jan Kengelbach, CEO of Aenova Group, while the search for a successor is ongoing.
