Mohammad Naraghi leaves Aenova Group

Starnberg, September 2018. Dr Mohammad Naraghi, CEO of Aenova Group, is leaving the company as of September 17. Jan Kengelbach will take on the tasks of CEO on an interim basis until a successor is found.

“During his time as CEO, Dr Naraghi played a key role in growing Aenova Group’s returns. By introducing the One Aenova strategy he helped advance the integration of the Group and set its future strategic course, one that will enhance its competitiveness and customer focus. We would like to thank Dr Naraghi for his great commitment and very significant contribution to the success of Aenova Group. We sincerely wish him all the best for the future,” says Dr Ewald Walgenbach, Chairman of the Supervisory Board of Aenova Holding.
